NPR broadcast interview Jack Nelson on his The FBI and the Berrigans, 11/16/72. Nothing not already published on that, digression into Watergate at end half-hour show recorded some time prior to election, 11/7. He interviewed Baldwin, has more than 5 1/2 hours on tape. On allegation of patriotic endeavor involving exposure of alleged plotting of Dems with Castro, he said that in all the more than 200 intercepts he made and monitored and logged, there was no single reference to Cuba and in all the conversations he had with and overheard between Hunt and McCord, there was no single reference of any kind to Cuba or the expectation of overhearing anything about, etc. HW